

Continuing Minorities Of Presbyterian Church Gives Basis of Building Request

The Presbyterian Continuing Minorities this morning issued the following statement concerning the meeting of the Morris and Orange Presbytery held yesterday:

Yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the Presbytery of Morris and Orange held in the Central Presbyterian Church at Orange, the subject of the application for a new Church by the Presbyterian Continuing Minorities of Morristown came up.

To the Presbytery of Morris and Orange

Mr. Moderator, Fathers and Elders:

At a special called meeting of the Presbyterian Minorities of Morristown held on Friday evening, June 17, it was voted to lay before you at your spring meeting to be held June 21, the following request:

The Presbyterian Minorities of Morristowndesire,

1. To be organized into a new Presbyterian Church to be known as the Emanuel Presbyterian Church at Morristown, N. J. with elders, deacons and trustees according to the Form of Government of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

2. To have the Rev. Rockwell S. Brank, appointed as Moderator of our session, until a permanent pastor be called and installed in our Church.

The General Assembly dismissed our case on the technical ground that none but a judicial case might go to the General Assembly from a final decision of the Synod. They did not recognize our case under this classification for technical reasons. The individual members of the Permanent Judicial Commission were, however, impressed with our complaint when it was presented before them at our hearing, as was indicated by their comments and questions at that time, and we know they understand fully why it is quite impossible for us to join with the other Presbyterian Church in Morristown, and they have not suggested or commanded they we do so. We hope that any members of the Presbytery of Morris and Orange who think our attitude in this matter is at all unreasonable will very kindly take the trouble to read carefully our complaint to the General Assembly of May 2, 1927.

This request raised a storm of discussion in which voices sympathy and understanding of our needs as well as voices of a different tenor were distinctly heard. Dr. John Mac Naughtan, long a pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and unsympathetic with our main reason for wanting a separate church, spoke with magnificent justice and eloquence in the behalf of a group who wished to have a Presbyterian Church of their own, and these sentiments were strongly echoed by others.

In the discussion and in the report of the special committee of inquiry, the following facts failed to be made known: Of the 74 signers of this petition, the youngest member is now in training as a nurse. No children signed the request, yet one Elder surmised from the penmanship of some of the signatories that "about twenty-five children signed the petition." In the end the request was refused, thirty-nine voting against, eleven for, and perhaps a dozen or so not voting at all.

The Continuing Minorities have never been in debt for a moment. They have now a balance of $845 in the bank. Not a single Sunday since they began their services have they failed to have regular Sunday services, including Sunday School, which was added a few months after the preaching services were begun. The prayer meetings have been largely attended and very earnest. The Sunday School is growing, now numbering over seventy. The Women's Missionary Society of twenty-five members has sent gifts to mission work in Persia, India, Borneo and has sent boxes to the Mountain whites, to some aged negro Christians in Virginia and to the Parsippany home. The Sunday School supports its own Bible Woman in China, and the congregation supports a native pastor in China.

Morristown is growing rapidly, four large apartment houses having gone up recently. There is, therefore, no reason why a second Presbyterian Church should not thrive here, where two have thrived for over eighty years.

The ideals of the continuing Presbyterian Minorities, (still continuing,) do not embrace visions of a large home church. They are willing for a small church, with as low running expense as may be necessary to carry on an intelligent work for Christ. But they do hope to be the hub of a wheel, the spokes of which may, if God will, reach to the ends of the earth in missionary effort. We hope this may be true of the coming of Emanuel (Independent) Presbyterian Church.

Presbyterian Minorities II Issues Complaint Filed With New Jersey Synod

The Continuing Presbyterian Minorities of Morristown this morning issued the following statement concerning their complaint recently filed with the Presbyterian Synod:

"The so-called "Continuing Presbyterian Minorities" were rather interested at the Synod's appointing a Special Judicial Commission, etc., to consider our complaint when we only posted it to them for filing in the Synodical records. No representative from our group was sent to the Synod, and without representation from our side, it could but "dismiss the case," since a legal hearing was impossible according to Presbyterian law. To get our statement into the records and to apprise the Synod of our intention in the near future, were our objectives, both of which attained. We are, therefore, satisfied, and quite at peace with all the world.

"The items of our complaint to the Synod were as follows:

To the Honorable Body

The Synod of New Jersey:

Greetings:

Mr. Moderator, Fathers and Elders:

We, the undersigned, members of the large group known as the Continuing Presbyterian Minorities of Morristown, New Jersey, respectfully desire to present to you the following Complaint against the Presbytery of Morris and Orange, concerning their action of September

From "The Tennessean" of Morristown N.J. Oct 21, '27

20, 1927 in refusing the application of the Continuing Presbyterian Minorities of Morristown to be formed into a new church to be known as the Emmanuel Presbyterian Church at Morristown.

I-The Presbytery of Morris and Orange erred in not having our application, herewith appended, and the list of seventy-two signers read at the Fall Meeting of the Presbytery when it was presented.

II-The Presbytery of Morris and Orange erred in permitting the Committee of Inquiry to withhold from the Presbytery all the data we had submitted to them. Thus the Presbytery voted in ignorance of many important facts in the situation.

III-The Presbytery of Morris and Orange erred in permitting one member of the Committee to suggest that in his opinion, judging from the penmanship of the signers "at least twenty-five children must have signed the application," where as no children signed it, the youngest signer being over sixteen and the New Jersey State law requiring adult age not being applicants to this list of signatures, since no property transfer was involved.

IV-The Presbytery of Morris and Orange erred in permitting the Committee to report in their discussion rumors, surmises, etc, etc, in various churches, instead of confining their report official and unofficial to well authenticated data.

V-The Presbytery of Morris and Orange erred in not considering carefully the future of the Minorities, whose application for a new church, the Presbytery, by receiving an amended report from its Special Committee, recommending refusal, thus refused. The Committee had been faithfully informed that that in the event of refusal, the Minorities would form an independent Presbyterian Church, and this they now feel free to do."

STOKES PUTS HIS PETITIONS IN CIRCULATION

Four Hundred Being Passed Around State

TRENTON, October 19.—Over four hundred nominating petitions have been circulated throughout the State by former Governor Edward C. Stokes, who is a candidate for United States Senatorial honors next year. With the mailing of the petitions, the Mercer County Stokes Roster Committee have adopted a resolution voicing resentment at the attempt to create the impression that Mr. Stokes will not continue in the race. Reports to that effect were branded as false and malicious propaganda by the committee.

The campaign of Governor Stokes will be conducted "not on the dollar sign, not as an aristocrat, but as a friend of the people," the resolution stated. Efforts are now under way for the formation of Stokes Roster Clubs in every County in the State.

The resolution adopted by the Stokes Roster Club of Mercer County follows: "Be it resolved, that we resent with indignation the false propaganda circulated in regard to the Senatorial candidacy of Governor E. C. Stokes in the effort of his opponents to deceive the public by insisting that he will not remain a candidate.

"His brilliant statesmanship, his wise counsel and his unselfish and untiring work both in season and out of season for the Republican Party merit his unanimous nomination to this high office by the Republican Party.

"Governor Stokes in the interest of harmony offered to remain out of the field providing two other prominently mentioned gentlemen would do likewise. This proposition was declined and he announced his candidacy and left the matter to the people for their determination and there it will rest until the polls are closed on Primary Day.

"This organization represents a movement of the people in behalf of Governor Stokes and we propose to organize on similar lines in every County of the State, a citizen's league for this purpose. It is his always with the Governor's idea that the candidate should be elected by the people instead of selecting themselves. We are therefore, making this a people's campaign and we shall make a campaign with a candidate fitted and worthy by ability and experience, not on the dollar sign or as an aristocrat, but as a friend of the people. Every County of the State will be visited and a movement started in behalf of the Governor for the Republican Party nomination for United States Senator."

EPISCOPALIANS MOURN DEATH OF BISHOP LINES

No Services in St. Peter's Church Tomorrow Morning

The Rev. Donald M. Brokman, rector of St. Peter's Church announced this morning from Albany where he is attending a religious Congress, that there will be no service in his church here tomorrow morning since all the clergy of the diocese will attend the funeral in Newark of Right Rev. Edwin Stevens Lines, Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Newark, who died yesterday.

Bishop Lines, who has been head of the diocese since 1903, passes away at his home, 43 Berkeley avenue, Newark.

He lacked but a month to be 82 years old. Death was due to heart disease, from recurring attacks of which he had suffered since early last Spring. His condition yesterday morning, although considered serious was not thought to be critical. The body will lie in state in Trinity Cathedral, Military Park, Newark, between 8:30 and 10 o'clock tomorrow forenoon. Funeral services will be held there at 11 o'clock. On Friday services will be held in St. Paul's Church, New Haven, Conn. Burial will be in Evergreen Cemetery, New Haven.

Worked in a Rubber Factory. Bishop Lines was born in Naugatuck, Conn., on Nov. 23, 1845. As a youth he worked in a rubber factory there, making shoes, and saved enough from his wages to attend the Episcopal Academy at Chestertown, Conn. Then he entered Yale, where he was an editor of The Yale Courant and was class orator. After graduating in 1872, he began his theological studies in Yale Divinity School and completed them at the Berkeley Divinity School, Middletown, Conn., in 1874.

Later in life Rutgers, Yale and Princeton universities and Berkeley Divinity School conferred the honorary degree, Doctor of Divinity, upon him. He was ordained to the priesthood in 1874 and was rector of Christ Church, West Haven, Conn., for five years, and St. Paul's Church, New Haven, for twenty-four years. Then he became Bishop of the Newark Diocese.

He was a member of several important committees of the Episcopal Church, being especially interested in the work of foreign missions, religious education and social service. For six years before 1920 he was President of the Provincial Synod of New Jersey and New York. He was also active in Yale alumni affairs and the Sons of the American Revolution.

Bishop Lines constantly urged that it was the work of the Church to improve conditions surrounding human life and preached a religion of "joy and gladness and hope" for the "under-privileged class."

He advocated simplicity in living, in dress and in recreation and was not disturbed by disputes over heresy and modernism.

On May 4, 1880, Bishop Lines married Louise Morehouse of West Haven. Four children were born to them, two of whom, Edwin Jr. and Harold, and Mrs. Lines survive the Bishop.

COURT DECLARES JERSEY ESTATE IS INSOLVENT

Vice Chancellor James F. Fielder in an opinion handed down today directs that the North Jersey Estates with offices in this city be declared insolvent and a receiver appointed. He also directs that transfer of property made to Mrs. Anna M. Baker, wife of Charles Baker president of the corporation by the North Jersey be set aside.

Another transfer of property in the tract located in Madison, made by Walter S. Slifer, an architect of this city and secretary of the company to a man named Smith, also be set aside.

Vice Chancellor Fielder, however, points out that any money expended by Mrs. Baker or Mr. Slifer in maintaining the property since insolvency shall be taken into account and considered a lien when sold at a receiver's sale. The financial difficulty of the company arose when Joseph Harris and Sons, lumber dealers of Rockaway through its attorney Herman M. Cone of this city pressed for payment of a bill. The company was incorporated in June, 1925 with Mr. Baker as president and Mr. Slifer as secretary. Maurice Weiss of this city, named the third member but was not active in any way. The authorized capital stock was $100,000. It is said that Mr. Baker and Mr. Slifer paid in only a small amount of capital. During the same month he purchased a tract of land in Madison for $15,000 which it divided into nine building lots and start ed to erect dwellings. Later it was unable to dispose of the house it had constructed and thereupon the Company found itself in financial difficulties. It was then that the property was conveyed to Mrs. Baker and Mr. Slifer, for a consideration.

The Vice Chancellor in his opinion, pointed out that Mrs. Baker has said she was unaware of the insolvency of the company. He said that the evidence "satisfied him that the corporation had suspended business prior to the first transfer to Mrs. Baker and that it was then and has been since without funds to pay its creditors."

Elmer W. Romine was the attorney for The North Jersey Estates; Harold A. Price for Mrs. Baker and Harry Silverstein for Mr. Slifer.
